

We serve with care and compassion

With a depth of experience in wake and bereavement catering, we understand the sensitive nature of bereavement and aim to provide post funeral catering with a compassionate and caring approach.

Our bereavement service provides comforting refreshments and warm hospitality for post-funeral functions giving you more time to reflect on and celebrate the lives of your loved ones and to help you remember their very unique story.

Call our professional team today to discuss how we can personalise your event to suit your special requirements.
